WICHITA, THURSDAY, NOV. 28, 1872.

THE SPEAKERSHIP.

Josiah Kellogg, of Leavenworth, Col. Veal, of Topeka, and Schofield, of Seneca, are understood to be candidates for the Kansas house of representatives.

For speaker of the nation house of representatives Hon. Horace Maynard, of Tennesee, and Hon. B. F. Butler, of Massachusetts, are spoken of. Mr. Blaine, who has been twice elected to that office, appears to have a good prospect for re-election.

IS MR. GREELEY INSANE.

The telegraph gives us quite an exciting story from New York, to the effect that Mr. Greelev has been insune for some days, and is now an inmate of an asylum. Mr. Whitelaw Reid is credited with saying that Mr. Greeley is in a condition of great nervous prostration; that he is always eccentric. and might now, by those unacquainted with him, be thought to be insane. It seems that for a long time previous to his wife's death Mr. Greeley was almost totally deprived of sleep, and since her death has remained in much the same condition.

NOT HANGED.

The execution of Crawford, by hanging, which was to have taken place vesterday, has been postponed by the sapreme court until the case may be decided by that body on the appeal taken from the district court by the defease. The next session of the supreme court is held in February, when Craw-ford's fate will be decided—if he don't decide it himself before that time. Merion County Record.

All but hang. Capital punishment in Kansas is a rare thing, except those hang by vigilance committees or mobs Few murderers in this state have paid the penalty prescribed by law.

From what we know of the Crawford case, we judge him a cold-blooded murderer-a man unsafe to turn loose

He decided that the timber was part of the reality, and that, therefore, the applicant's contract debarred him from entering. A hair-splitting decision, without any equity, that.

ANTI-POMEROY

The legislature of Kansas elects a United States senator this winter-a fact well understood by the democratic press and liberal soreheads of this state. In the late election Kausas went republican by $3,000 majority strong. A fact not understood by the democratic press and disappointed liberals so long that it has come to be classed of this state it would seem. The ad- with the nursery exploits of Jack the vice and opinions daily and hourly urged upon the next legislature by the democratic journals and liberal aspirwere it not becoming irksome. Greeley let them keep it up in the halls of the Kansas legislature, but we protest against their advising the republican party as in what its duty consists.

THE NEUTRAL LANDS.

The vexed question touching the title to the neutral lands is at last settled. poor settlers. It turned out just as Atchison Daily Champion. nine-tenths of all disinterested parties predicted it would. We recollect writing an article upon this subject Marsh. Murdock, of the handsome Wichita EAGLE, has been elected state senator of the 25th district. The people of that district have shown their two or three years ago, at the time true appreciation of a good man, by Joy offered to compromise with the electing the fair-haired man of the settlers, in which we reviewed the in with Mr. Joy's terms. U. S. SENATOR

The papers of Kansasare just at present very busily employed in the election of U. S. senator to represent the people of Kansas upon the floor of the national congress. The democratic vidual is, so he is not a friend to Pomeroy, and is either a liberal, an independent or a democrat.

A small minority of the republican Pom." A large majority of the republican papers are, however, unmistakably in favor of Pomeroy as his own successor. Such prominent journals as the Atchison Champion, Leavenworth Times, Topeka Commonwealth, Lawrence Tribune, Emporia News, Troy Chief, Paola Spirit and many other prominent republican papers in their particular localities are square out in their preference for him.

There are other papers who say that they are not for Pomeroy, but would rather accept him as a certainty than to run the risk of selecting a nobody through a blind fight. There is still another class of editors who handle this important question in a philosophical manner, not designating their choice and not taking grounds for or against Mr. Pomerov. Conceding that much can be said for "Old Beans;" claiming that much can be urged against him; they sensibly leave the whole question to their representatives and senators, in whose judgement and discretion facy claim to rely.

We reproduce a portion of one of the latter kind of articles, from the pen of Col. Horner, editor of the Chetopa Advance, who is not only one of the shrewdest writers in the state, but who has had much to do in an official capacity with our state and its institutions. He also canvasses the prospects of Phillips, Lowe and Kalloch, but the article is entirely too long for these columns. Most papers are either all for or all against Pomeroy's re-election. Horner looking at both sides, says:

"The several senatorial aspirants ar forces for the January campaign, at Topeka. First and forcmost in the list, is l'itle chance of his hanging.

The national banks have formed an association, which held a session in Topeka last week. The Commonwealth says: with whom he is powerful in the dispensation of patronage. Opposed to Pomerov will be several senatorial aspirants and their friends, who are "anti-Pomerov" for the simout they can't get in. Their influence will be small. Opposed to Pomeroy will be the sentiment of a lasge num-ber of settlers on the public lands, who feel that Mr. Pomeroy's course on the policy of land grants to railroads has not been satisfactory. This element will stubboraly rainse to support Mr. Pomeroy, unless he can give pledges of a satisfactory character as to his future course in this respect. Many who have nothing particular to urge against Mr. Pomeroy himself, think he uses bad discretion in employing such paid strikers as Legate, Jenuison and Reynolds to advance his interests. The story of those early "beans," early at least in Kansas history, if ever believed, has been an "o'er told tale,"

COMPLIMENTARY.

Marsh, Murdock, of the Wichita EAGLE, who is elected state senator from the 25th district by over 2,000 majority, has already served four years in that body. The term for which he has just been elected will make six successive years for Marsh, in the state senate. Some of the best men in the county are about forming themselves into a banking corporation, with a paid-up capital of $49,000, and they say they mean "business." It is to be hoped that they not only "mean business," but will put their scheme into active operation at once. The concern which we now have here is the most miserable excuse that the mind of man can conceive of. The gentleman that runs it also "keeps" entertainments for man and beast.
